Dear Comrade,

Date: 05.06.2026

COM. RAJEEV M P

It is with immense respect and deep appreciation that we convey our greetings to Com. Rajeev M. P., Deputy General Secretary of our Union, who retired from the services of the State Bank of India and from active organisational responsibilities on 31st May 2026.

Com. Rajeev M. P. has been a steadfast and committed trade union activist whose contributions have enriched our organisation at every level. Throughout his association with the State Banks' Staff Union (Kerala Circle), he has remained a dependable comrade, a thoughtful leader and a tireless advocate of employees' rights.

Before joining the banking industry, Com. Rajeev rendered distinguished service to the nation in the Indian Air Force. The discipline, commitment and sense of duty that characterised his military career continued to define his approach to trade union work as well. These qualities earned him the confidence of members and the respect of fellow activists across the Circle.

After joining the State Bank of India in 2009, Com. Rajeev quickly became an active participant in organisational activities. He was always at the forefront of struggles and agitations undertaken by the Union, readily accepting responsibilities and standing firmly with members whenever challenges arose. His contributions to the strengthening of the organisation in Ernakulam Module and across Kerala have been significant and enduring.

One of Com. Rajeev's most remarkable qualities has been his commitment to trade union education. His study classes and organisational sessions have benefited countless comrades over the years. Possessing an exceptional ability to analyse complex issues and present them in a simple and convincing manner, he played an important role in nurturing a generation of activists and office bearers. Many comrades continue to draw inspiration from his clarity of thought, organisational understanding and commitment to trade union values.

The Union also gratefully acknowledges his invaluable contributions in legal and service matters affecting employees. His keen interest in protecting the rights of members and his involvement in pursuing important issues before various forums, including the Hon'ble High Court, have strengthened the organisation on several crucial occasions. His interventions were always guided by the larger interests of employees and the principles for which our movement stands.

As Deputy General Secretary (Branches) of State Banks' Staff Union (Kerala Circle) and Central Committee Member of the National Confederation of Bank Employees, Com. Rajeev discharged every responsibility entrusted to him with sincerity, dedication and a deep sense of organisational commitment. His contributions have left a lasting imprint on our Union and on the many comrades who had the privilege of working with him.

Those who know Com. Rajeev closely would readily acknowledge his humility, discipline, simplicity and unwavering loyalty to the organisation. He consistently placed collective interests above personal considerations and remained firmly committed to the ideals of the trade union movement. These qualities have earned him the affection and admiration of comrades throughout the State.

As Com. Rajeev M. P. enters a new phase of life, we place on record our sincere gratitude for his outstanding service to our Union and the broader trade union movement. While he may be stepping down from active organisational responsibilities, the values he embodied and the example he set will continue to inspire our members and future generations of trade union activists.

On behalf of the entire membership of State Banks' Staff Union (Kerala Circle), we extend our heartfelt appreciation and wish Com. Rajeev M. P. and his family a long, healthy, peaceful and fulfilling retired life.

Yours comradely,

(Akhil S)

General Secretary
